

The Play Well Promise

“We recognise all children’s right to play as part of the best possible healthcare. All our staff working with children understand the importance of play to their care, and we also employ specialised health play staff.

We want our health play services to be of the highest possible quality and are committed to adopting and implementing the recommended standards”.